The TAS Bell Tower is an architectural symbol recognised by all Old Boys as part of the heritage of the school and as the bell that would call boys to class, assembly and chapel. It was also the place where much mischief and many adventures took place away from the watchful eyes of staff.

Establishing a society dedicated to our older Old Boys where their tales could be recalled, their friendships renewed and opportunities for fun provided, is an obvious initiative. Naming it the Bell Tower Society seems self-evident.

What Will the Bell Tower Society Do?

- We will send you a twice-yearly newsletter Tales from the Tower which will include reminiscences and other articles of interest. We would be very pleased to receive contributions from any member. Please see Cressida Mort’s contacts overleaf.

- There will be annual get-togethers for members, in as many locations as possible.

- Contact details of members will be shared amongst each other with permission.

- Invitations will be issued to select school events.

The Bell Tower Society Patron

We would like to thank sincerely our oldest Old Boy, Mr Lionel Cohen who agreed to be our initial patron in the first year of the Bell Tower Society’s operation. Lionel’s anecdotes about his time at TAS have been the source of amusement and incredulity, and we are very grateful for his patronage.

Our current Patron is Mr Ian Seale (1938 – 1943). Ian was both School Captain and Senior Prefect in his final year at TAS. We are honoured to have him represent the Society and look forward to his tenure.
