

THE BELL TOWER society

The TAS Bell Tower is an architectural symbol recognised by past students of the school as part of the heritage of TAS and as the bell that would ring, calling all to class, assembly and chapel. It was also the place where much mischief and many adventures took place away from the watchful eyes of staff.

Establishing a society dedicated to our older alumni where their tales could be recalled, their friendships renewed and opportunities for fun provided, is an obvious initiative. Naming it the Bell Tower Society seems self-evident.

What Does the Bell Tower Society Do?

- We will send our unique newsletter Tales from the Tower which will include reminiscences, stories and other articles of interest. We encourage you to contribute and share in this publication.
- There will be annual get-togethers for members and their partners, in as many locations as possible providing a wonderful opportunity to re-connect with old friends and make new ones.
